katmagendie RT @LitChat: For this weeks discs INDIE AUTHOR refers to self-published, published by self-started press, old-style vanity press. #litchat -1:08 PM Jun 21st, 2010 GLHancock @mdbenoit2 My point exactly, but the new SP companies co-opted it and changed the meaning to disguise their biz is SP... a feelgood #litchat -1:08 PM Jun 21st, 2010 agnieszkasshoes @mchanson714 interested to hear how the ghosting works & how you find clients - is it non-fiction? #litchat -1:08 PM Jun 21st, 2010 robhollywood I consider myself an indie author but I'm not against publishing houses. Hi, everyone. :) #litchat -1:11 PM Jun 21st, 2010 katmagendie @AuthorWilliam Except indie filmmakers get more respect, unfortunately, than indie authors . . . #litchat -1:11 PM Jun 21st, 2010

KrisLovesBooks @EmApocalyptic YA dystopian...awesome...name? #litchat -1:11 PM Jun 21st, 2010 mchanson714 @agnieszkasshoes #litchat my readers approach me with their stories & I coach them, read their manuscripts, or do the writing for them -1:11 PM Jun 21st, 2010

agnieszkasshoes Q2 Are you "indie" because you want to do things publishers do yourself or because you consider (some of) these things irrelevant? #litchat -1:11 PM Jun 21st, 2010

Lizzy_Sheena @robhollywood That's interesting Rob, but the book I have just complied is very commercial. Nothing arty about it really. #litchat -1:11 PM Jun 21st, 2010 bypetal It is interesting because an Indy music artist normally means alternative not necessarily unsigned. There are Indy record labels #litchat -1:11 PM Jun 21st, 2010

AuthorWilliam @miriamgershow Not necessarily. But if they do work with the distribution deal, they are the businessperson running point #litchat -1:11 PM Jun 21st, 2010

JoLynneValerie Hey #litchat! Wanted to pop in & represent as an #IndieAuthor. Must also distinguish that imo, Indie/self pub is like vanilla/chocolate. -1:12 PM Jun 21st, 2010 mchanson714 @agnieszkasshoes it happened sponataneously in other words #litchat -1:12 PM Jun 21st, 2010 mchanson714 RT @jevonbolden: @GLHancock I agree. I love that indie is crossing over into publishing. Sometimes you have to take matters into your own hands. #litchat -1:12 PM Jun 21st, 2010 katmagendie @Lizzy_Sheena Oh! I have a friend who did this; with her sister & two other women - they enjoyed it so much #litchat -1:12 PM Jun 21st, 2010 agnieszkasshoes @robhollywood hey! #litchat me neither. I think there's a place for all kinds. I'll be looking at punk/altrenative in a minute for e.g. -1:12 PM Jun 21st, 2010 editorialdept Hello litchat. I'm the twitter voice of an ed. & proofing co. that counts many indies as clients. Very interested in this topic! #litchat -1:13 PM Jun 21st, 2010 techtigger maybe we need something like the cannes festival, some way to recognize quality indie writing - right now, there's nothing I know of #litchat -1:13 PM Jun 21st, 2010

DebraMarrs @AuthorWilliam You bet you are + guest host here on Fri. 6/25 too [stepping forward] I am an indie author #litchat -1:13 PM Jun 21st, 2010

CarolBMTbooks Indie (independent) author = self-published author. We've borrowed Indie from the indie musicians. #litchat -1:13 PM Jun 21st, 2010 wildbloom @agnieszkasshoes I wanted to have more control over my work and time was also a factor. #litchat -1:13 PM Jun 21st, 2010 robhollywood I also think it's a matter of resources - personally, I don't feel (yet) I have resources to properly market my novel myself #litchat -1:13 PM Jun 21st, 2010 mchanson714 @agnieszkasshoes #litchat if I really like their story I help them POD and secure their copyrights too -1:13 PM Jun 21st, 2010 pussreboots @LitChat I love reading indie, small pub and self pub books. I also review them on my blog. #litchat -1:13 PM Jun 21st, 2010

GLHancock @jevonbolden Well, what I object to is co-opting a term to hide behind. Controversial I know. I'm an editor, hate language changes #litchat -1:13 PM Jun 21st, 2010

AuthorWilliam RT @techtigger: we need something like the cannes festival,some way to recognize quality indie writing <<<would help, definitely #litchat -1:14 PM Jun 21st, 2010

ErikaRobuck @agnieszkasshoes My move to self-pub was step in the process. I'm not trying to rebel against system, just approach it another way. #litchat -1:14 PM Jun 21st, 2010 bookswim #litchat what is an indie publisher then? -1:14 PM Jun 21st, 2010 katmagendie @GLHancock I self-publish [...] I have a long history of traditional pub: - which fits you best; makes you happier? #litchat -1:14 PM Jun 21st, 2010 agnieszkasshoes @wildbloom time in what sense? As in being able to get to press quickly? #litchat -1:14 PM Jun 21st, 2010 miriamgershow RT @susankayequinn: I think that is because Indie and Small Press and Self-Pub are all mashed together #litchat -1:14 PM Jun 21st, 2010 editorialdept Aren't the IPPYs for that? RT @techtigger: we need something like the cannes festival,some way to recognize quality indie writing #litchat -1:14 PM Jun 21st, 2010

GLHancock @CarolBMTbooks Yay! You made it. This is one SP author who knew what she was doing and did it very well! Give us links, Carol. #litchat -1:14 PM Jun 21st, 2010

GeneDoucette @pussreboots Get lots of ARC's? #litchat -1:14 PM Jun 21st, 2010

katmagendie @mdbenoit2 @GLHancock POD does not equal self-publishing. It's simply a printing method>>>exactly-traditional pub's can use POD #litchat -1:15 PM Jun 21st, 2010 wayzgoose #litchat A lot of books that don't have the market appeal for major publishers are still good stories and deserve to be published. -1:16 PM Jun 21st, 2010

GLHancock @katmagendie Not as the newer SP companies use it to mean "publish on demand". #litchat -1:16 PM Jun 21st, 2010

GeneDoucette @katmagendie PODs are only an issue because POD publishers generally don't take returns, so brick & mortars don't take many PODs #litchat -1:16 PM Jun 21st, 2010 jevonbolden @GLHancock I'm an editor too. I know what u mean about term changes. I think self-pub carries a neg conn. Indie gives more pos. #litchat -1:16 PM Jun 21st, 2010 katmagendie @robhollywood although I s'pose your subject matter may determine if you have to self-publish or not >>yes, like poetry many times #litchat -1:16 PM Jun 21st, 2010

agnieszkasshoes @editorialdept lovely to see you! #litchat -1:16 PM Jun 21st, 2010

JulieBritt My concern about indie publishing is distribution, publicity support. Are you completely on your own? #litchat -1:16 PM Jun 21st, 2010

GeneDoucette @pussreboots Natch. I'm going to have ARC's in hand in a couple of weeks and lining up pre-pub reviewers is proving hellish. #litchat -1:16 PM Jun 21st, 2010 katmagendie @Moribundy I see Indie films reviewed, considered "brilliant" but a "brilliant" novel if not by Big 6 is many times ignored-shame #litchat -1:18 PM Jun 21st, 2010

JoLynneValerie @JulieBritt Majority of authors at big pub are responsible for own PR. Every author - major or indie must self promote religiously. #litchat -1:18 PM Jun 21st, 2010 brandg I see a lot of authors who could use each other's support, dividing themselves over nomenclature. #litchat -1:19 PM Jun 21st, 2010
